

Did you know that PoPIA came into effect on 1 July 2020. By the 30th of June 2021 the regulator can start inspecting companies to assess their compliance. Are you compliant?

The Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 sets conditions for responsible parties to lawfully process personal information of data subjects. Avoid a hefty fine or imprisonment by being compliant. It is vital for all businesses to provide proof of adhering to protecting personal information by the 30th of June 2021, including having registered an Information Officer who will be the person in your business that ensures Compliance.
